BAR EXAMINATION.—The next examination of candidates for admission to the bar will be conducted by the Board of Law Examiners at Charleston and Morgantown simultaneously on Wednesday and Thursday, March 13th and 14th, 1918. The place of holding the examination in Charleston may be learned upon inquiry to the Clerk, Supreme Court of Appeals. In Morgantown, the examination will be held at the University.

NECROLOGY.—Four members of the bar have died recently. They are J. H. Gilmore of Pineville, Wyoming County; J. A. Seaman of Ripley, Jackson County; Judge V. S. Armstrong of Ripley, Jackson County; and N. C. Prickett of Ravenswood, Jackson County. Mr. Seaman was Speaker of the House of Delegates, session of 1907. Mr. Prickett had been a member of the Bar Association for many years.

RECENT SUPREME COURT RULINGS ON QUESTIONS OF APPELLATE PRACTICE.—A recent decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals, in City of Wheeling v. The Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company, a certified case from Ohio County, holds that by § 5, Rule 1, Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Appeals, a case under § 1, c. 135, of the Code, cannot be certified to the Supreme Court from an order or proceedings had in vacation,—in this case, an order awarding a temporary injunction, upon bill, without
